

Worksheet

Flying Together

Q.1. Who came up to kill the birds?

Ans.

A hunter came up to kill the birds.

Q.2. Did the birds destroy the creeper?

Ans.

No, the birds did not destroy the creeper.

Q.3. What happened one morning when the geese went in search of food?

Ans.

One morning, when the geese had gone in search of food, a hunter came to the forest and went to the top and spread his net on the tree to catch the geese.

Q.4. What happened when the geese returned home?

Ans.

They did not notice the net as they flew into the tree and they were trapped.

Q.5. What did the hunter do when he thought that the geese were dead?

Ans.

The hunter threw the geese out of the net one by one.

Q.6. Where did the flock of wild geese live?

Ans.

The flock of wild geese lived in a tall tree in a deep forest.

Q.7. What did the old wise bird advice to the other geese to destroy the small creeper?

Ans.

The old wise bird advised to the other geese to destroy the small creeper because that little creeper will grow soon and as it creeper up this tree it will become thick and strong with the help of that, it will be possible for someone to climb this tree , a hunter can come up and kill all geese.

Q.8. Did the geese destroy the creeper? What did happen then?

Ans.

The geese did not destroy the creeper; they forgot the wise old bird's advice. And then as the creeper grow, it began winding its way up the tree and become stronger. And one morning when the geese had gone out in search of food, a hunter came to the forest and climbed up the tree with that creeper. He spread a net there to catch the geese.

Q.9. Why did the geese think themselves to be foolish?

Ans.

The geese thought themselves to be foolish because they did not listen to the old bird's advice and as a result of this they were trapped into the hunter's net.

Q.10. What did the hunter see in the next morning? Then what did he do? What did happen then?

Ans.

In the next morning when the hunter came to the tree and climbed up he saw all the birds were dead. Then he threw them out of the net one by one unknowingly the fact that they were still alive. Then the birds lay still until the last one had been thrown down. Then all at once they got up and flew away and the hunter was surprised and he watched from the top of the tree all the geese fly away.