

Worksheet

My Shadow

Q.1. Express your views on Mithoo and his little dog named shadow?

Ans.

She is a beautiful grey dog. She follows Mithoo like a shadow whenever she goes. Mithoo is a friendly dog she likes to eat chop and dog biscuits. She looks after shadow very well. Also, she has made a little house for shadow.

Q.2. Where does our shadow go?

Ans.

Our shadows go in and out with us all the time

Q.3. What does your shadow look like?

Ans.

My shadow looks just like me.

Q.4. Why does our shadow jump into bed before us?

Ans.

Our shadow jumps into bed before us because I think they are more sleepy and lazy than us. And they are always ready to go to the bed.

Q.5. What did the speaker see in the morning?

Ans.

One morning the speaker woke up very early and he saw the shining dew on every buttercup.

Q.6. What did the speaker's shadow do when he woke up very early in the morning?

Ans.

When the speaker woke up in the morning, his sleepy head shadow stayed at home as he was fast asleep in bed.

Q.7. How does the little boy in the poem feel about his shadow?

Ans.

The little boy is curious to know about his shadow and is confused about its funny ways. He is also amused by its strange behavior.

Q.8. What makes a shadow? Do shadows change?

Ans.

Shadows are formed when light cannot pass through an object. They are created on the side of the object opposite to the light source. Shadows change size according to the position of the light source. The position of the light affects the direction of the shadow.

Q.9. Why does the poet call the shadow, a coward?

Ans.

The poet calls the shadow, a coward because he always stays beside him as if he is afraid of facing difficult situations alone.

Q.10. What is the shadow compared to when it shoots up taller? What is the funniest part of the shadow?

Ans.

The shadow is compared to the Indian rubber ball when it shoots up taller. The funniest part of the shadow is the way he likes to grow.